UNIT 5. Be healthy!

UNIT 5, Lesson 1, ex. 1a, 1b

Nikita: Hello! Can I speak to Mike, please?

Mike: Yes, speaking.

Nikita: Hello, Mike! It's me, Nikita.

Mike: Hi, Nikita! How are you?

Nikita: I'm fine, thank you. And how are you?

Mike: I'm OK.

Nikita: I'm going to Britain on holiday!

Mike: Great! When are you coming?

Nikita: On the 5th of January.

Mike: Are you coming with your parents?

Nikita: No, with our class. We're going to spend a week there. Can I stay in your house?

Mike: Sure! My parents will be happy!

Nikita: Thank you. Goodbye!

Mike: Bye! See you soon.

UNIT 5, Lesson 3, ex. 1a

1

Rotty: Moldy, guess what I have in the box. It's delicious.

Moldy: Is there a sweet in the box?

Rotty: No, there isn't. There isn't a sweet. There's a biscuit in the box. Catch!

Moldy: Thank you. Munch-munch-munch!

2

Rotty: Moldy, guess what I have in the basket. They're tasty.

Moldy: Are there any apples in the basket?

Rotty: No, there aren't. There aren't any apples. There are some cucumbers in the basket. Catch!

Moldy: Thank you. Crunch-crunch-crunch!

3

Rotty: Moldy, guess what I have in the cup. It's healthy.

Moldy: Is there any water in the cup?

Rotty: No, there isn't. There isn't any water. There's some milk in the cup. Drink it!

Moldy: Thank you. M-m, yum-yum.

UNIT 5, Lesson 9, ex. 1b

Liz: Elfin, let's play the "Good health" game!

Elfin: What's that?

Liz: Look, the "Good health" game is when you answer questions and get a prize.

Elfin: I like getting prizes! Come on! Ask your questions!

Liz: OK. Elfin, what do you do in your free time?

Elfin: Hmm, I read a book.

Liz: OK. Can you play sports games?

Elfin: Of course, I can! Football and tennis are my favourite games.

Liz: I see. The next question is about healthy food. Do you drink much coffee?

Elfin: Yuck! I never drink coffee!

Liz: OK, now the last question, Elfin. Do you take a shower every day?

Elfin: Oh, yes, I do! I love water! Liz, what's my present?

Liz: Elfin, look! It's a pearl!

Elfin and Liz: Hooray!

UNIT 5, Lesson 10, ex. 2a

Evelyn had a sweet tooth. She liked chocolate, toffees, lollypops, fruit gums, sweets and chewing gum very much.

One evening she had really bad toothache. She was very unhappy. Jack, her younger brother, wanted to help her but he couldn't help much. So when their daddy came home, he called, "Daddy, daddy, tell a story for Evelyn to make her forget about her toothache."

"That is too bad," said Daddy. "I'm sorry my little girl has toothache. I know one story that can help you feel better. It's a story about old Mr Owl who ate a lot of chocolate and lots of sweets. One day he had the most terrible toothache.

'Oh, dear,' he cried, 'my tooth, my poor tooth!'

The next day he went to the dentist. Dr Raven was the best dentist in the forest. Mr Owl came to his office in the tree. There he saw Dr Raven doing Mrs Duck's teeth. She looked very miserable. At first, Mr Owl wanted to go home but then he sat down, put on his glasses and began to read one of Dr Raven's magazines. Five minutes later Mrs Duck got out of the chair, and Dr Raven said, 'I'm ready for you now, Mr Owl.' So Mr Owl got into Dr Raven's chair and opened his mouth. 'Open wide,' said Dr Raven. Mr Owl opened his mouth as wide as he could, and Dr Raven looked at his teeth, one by one. When he touched one of the back teeth, Mr Owl cried, 'That's my sore tooth, and you're hurting it terribly!'

'Yes,' said Dr Raven, 'the tooth is a wisdom tooth, and it is sore, so I'll take it out right now.' He took his pincers, but Mr Owl said: 'I'm the wisest bird in the forest. Please, don't take out my wisdom tooth. I don't want to lose my wisdom.'

And with these words Mr Owl jumped out of the chair and flew away. When he got home his tooth hurt, but the next morning it was much better, and the next day it was all well. 'I know what the problem was,' said Mr Owl. 'I ate a lot of sweets. I shouldn't eat so many, because I don't want to lose any of my wisdom teeth as I'm the wisest bird.' "

"Daddy," said Jack, "your story is a very good one, but owls don't have teeth."

Daddy smiled, and the children started laughing. When Evelyn went to bed, Evelyn said her tooth didn't ache.

UNIT 6. In the city

UNIT 6, Lesson 1, ex. 2a

Mike: Yes. Hello.

Nikita: Can I speak to Mike, please?

Mike: Speaking.

Nikita: This is me, Nikita!

Mike: Oh, Nikita! Where are you?

Nikita: I'm lost!

Mike: Oh, dear!

Nikita: Please, help me! What can I do?

Mike: Don't worry! What can you see?

Nikita: Well, there's a cinema in front of me, and there's a bank next to the cinema.

Mike: What's there behind you?

Nikita: Let me see. There's a swimming pool behind me.

Mike: Is there a school?

Nikita: Yes, there is. Between the swimming pool and the library.

Mike: What's the school's name?

Nikita: Mayflower School.

Mike: It's my school. Now listen ...

UNIT 6, Lesson 3, ex. 3b

Tourist: Excuse me! How do I get to the Book Shop?

Police officer: It's not far away. Look! Go straight ahead. Then turn left at the traffic lights. Go along High Street, over the bridge. Go past the church. The Book Shop is next to the church, just opposite the bank.

Tourist: Thank you!

Police officer: You're welcome.

UNIT 6, Lesson 5, ex. 1

Nikita: Elfin, would you like to see some pictures of Minsk?

Elfin: Sure. Oh, Minsk is beautiful. What's that? Is that a square?

Nikita: Yes, it's Pobeda Square. A lot of people come here. War veterans like to come here too.

Elfin: I see. Are there many parks in Minsk?

Nikita: Oh, yes. Look! This is my favourite park. There's a big wheel, a merry-go-round and other rides there.

Elfin: It's like an amusement park, isn't it?

Nikita: Maybe. And this is Troitskoye Suburb.

Elfin: Nikita, it looks old. Is Minsk old or modern?

Nikita: It's quite modern. Look! The new railway station was built in 2001.

Liz: Are there any theatres in Minsk?

Nikita: Oh, yes. This is the Opera and Ballet House.

Mike: My favourite place in Minsk is the Circus. I like the Circus best.

UNIT 7. On the farm

UNIT 7, Lesson 3, ex. 3b

We are so happy we can help the zoo keeper. The zoo keeper's job is very interesting. I can say it's exciting to look after animals. The zoo keeper can drive a tractor, he knows the computer very well and he is very good with animals. He knows a lot about them and can tell interesting stories about animals. There's always a lot of work at the zoo.

At 6.00 a.m. we check if the animals are healthy or ill.

At 7.00 a.m. we feed the animals.

At 8.00 a.m. we say hello to the first visitors.

From 9.00 a.m. to 12.00 a.m. we tell visitors about animals.

At 7.00 p.m. we feed the animals.

At 8.00 p.m. we wash the animals.

UNIT 7, Lesson 6, ex. 1a, 1b

Rotty: Hello!

Woman: Hello!

Moldy: We'd like to collect eggs.

Rotty: We'd like to collect eggs, please.

Woman: Mmmm! All right!

Go past the Gift Shop to the cows. Milk the cows. Then turn left, go past the playground to the horses. Go over the bridge and then go straight ahead to the sheep and lambs. Bottle-feed them. After that go to the Tractor School and drive a tractor. Then go past the wood. Opposite the wood is the Touch Barn. The place you need is next to the Touch Barn.

Elfin: I'm going to fly after them. See you later!

Mike, Liz, Nikita: Bye!

UNIT 7, Lesson 6, ex. 2b

The Tree Monsters came to the cows, but they didn't milk them. Rotty rode a cow, and the cow was very angry.

Then the Tree Monsters went past the horses and over the bridge. They saw sheep and lambs and ran there. The silly Monsters were horrible. Moldy dropped litter, and Rotty broke a tree. They didn't bottle-feed lambs. Moldy drank a lot of milk and dropped the bottles.

Rotty saw tractors and ran to the Tractor School. He wanted to drive a tractor, but he was a bad driver. He broke the tractor.

After the Tractor School they went to the Touch Barn past the woods. And Moldy picked flowers from flowerbeds.

In the Touch Barn Rotty stole a little rabbit.

UNIT 7, Lesson 6, ex. 2d

At that time Elfin flew to them and took the little rabbit from Rotty. Elfin ran back to the Touch Barn and left the rabbit there.

But the Tree Monsters ran into the Hen House.

The children were in the Farm Park too. They collected the litter and ran to the Hen House too.

UNIT 7, Lesson 8, ex. 2c

Fun for Jack

Jack was very sad, because his owner, Toby, was in the city, and the puppy was alone.

"Looking after the garden is no fun," thought Jack. "I want some real fun!"

He ran into the road. Slinker, the cat, came out of the barn. "Why are you here? You must look after the garden," said the cat. "That's no fun," said Jack. And he went away.

He saw two young horses, Andy and Dandy. "Let's run," they said. "It's fun!" Jack ran very fast, but the horses ran faster. "Let's stop and have some real fun," he called to Andy and Dandy. "This is fun for us," they said and ran away.

In the field Jack saw Old Uncle Billy Goat. "Have some corn, please. It's very tasty." But Jack didn't like the corn, so he went away.

Jack came to a house and saw a puppy in the yard. "Good morning, friend! Woof-woof!" he barked. "Good morning!" barked the puppy. "Let's have some fun together," said Jack. "Oh, I can't," said the puppy. "My owner is out. I must look after the house."

Jack went home. He was dirty and tired and sad. In his yard he saw a chicken. "Bow-wow-wow! Out you go!" barked Jack. He ran after the chicken. The chicken ran away and Jack was very happy.

On the porch he found some food. It was very tasty. Then he went to hide a bone. He dug and dug. That was fun!

Hello, Jack! See what I've got for you!" It was Toby. He threw a beautiful bright ball to Jack. Jack caught it, and brought to Toby. "Good dog!" said Toby and threw the ball again. "Bow-wow-wow! It's fun! And I love you!" barked Jack.

UNIT 8. Our wonderful world

UNIT 8, Lesson 1, ex. 3a, 3b

Mike: Let's visit my grandad. He knows a lot of interesting stories.

Liz: That's a good idea!

Grandad: Oh, hello, children. I'm glad to see you. Come in.

Liz: What a big map!

Grandad: It's the biggest in my collection.

Elfin: Oh, it's so interesting! What's all this blue colour? Water?

Grandad: Yes, these are oceans. And these are continents. There are six continents in the world.

Elfin: Six continents?

Grandad: Yes, look, this is Africa. It's the hottest continent!

Elfin: And this?

Grandad: This is Australia. It's the smallest continent.

Elfin: What are these?

Grandad: These are South America and North America.

Mike: America? Oh, I know. My Uncle Grundy lives in America. He lives in the USA.

Grandad: Yes, that's right, Mike. Your uncle lives in the USA, that's in North America.

Liz: And what's this white? Is this a continent, too?

Grandad: Yes, It's Antarctica. It's covered with ice. It's the coldest continent.

Elfin: And where are we?

Grandad: In Europe. Here. We're in Britain and Britain is in Europe. Oh, would you like a cup of tea, children?

Children: Yes!

Grandad: Come with me then.

Rotty: This is the map! Let's take it!

Moldy: How?

Rotty: Stand on the chair. Quick! I'll take the map. Oh, no!

Moldy: Sorry.

Rotty: They're coming back. Let's hide under the table.

Mike: What was that?

Liz: I don't know.

UNIT 8, Lesson 3, ex. 1b

Koalas live in Australia, in the jungle; cheetahs and ostriches live in Africa, in the grasslands; polar bears live in the Arctic; penguins live in Antarctica; camels live in Africa and Asia, in the desert; eagles live in America and Europe, in the mountains; rhinos live in Asia and Africa, in the grasslands; kangaroos live in Australia, in the grasslands; pandas live in Asia, in the mountains and in the jungle; lizards live on many continents.

UNIT 8, Lesson 3, ex. 5b

Rhinos are rare and interesting animals. They live in Africa and Asia. Rhinos live in the grasslands where the weather is always hot so they like water very much. They can stay in the river all day. Rhinos are very good swimmers. Rhinos eat grass and leaves. They walk a lot to find fresh grass. Rhinos are big and heavy animals, but they aren't slow. They can run very quickly!

UNIT 8, Lesson 4, ex. 2

Belarusian nature is very beautiful. Belarus is often called 'a blue-eyed' country because there are 10,000 lakes and 20,000 rivers in it. The biggest lake is Lake Naroch. The most important rivers are the Dnepr, the Western Dvina, the Neman and the Pripyat.

There are not any high mountains in Belarus but there are a lot of hills in the country. The highest point of Belarus is Mount Dzerzhynskaya (346 meters high).

You can see a lot of green fields, meadows and swamps. One third of the country is covered with forests or pushchas. Belarusian forests are home to many animals and birds.

UNIT 8, Lesson 4, ex. 3a

A is a lynx, B is a wild boar, C is a deer, D is a bison, E is an elk, F is a hedgehog, G is a stork, H is a beaver.

UNIT 8, Lesson 7, ex. 1b, 1c

This is the story of little Abbu and the strange cave. Little Abbu was the chief's son. He lived in a village on the island. Every morning he went to collect nuts. One morning he got up, said goodbye to his parents and went out of the house. There was a field with tall grass near the village. Abbu walked through the field. Then he turned right. He went up the hill slowly. He went down the hill quickly. He went past the lake and came to the river. Abbu swam across the river and came to a big cave. Suddenly he heard some noise in the cave. It was very strange. Abbu was a brave boy so he looked into the cave. At first he couldn't see very well, but then he saw ... the Tree Monsters!

UNIT 8, Lesson 10, ex. 1a

Once upon a time in Antarctica there lived Flippy, a little penguin. One day he came to his father.

"Dad, can I go swimming in the sea alone today?" he asked.

"But you're very little!" his dad said.

"I'm little but I can swim and dive very well," Flippy said.

"OK," his dad said.

"Hooray!" Flippy cried loudly and ran to the sea.

He ran very fast, so soon he was near the sea. He wanted to jump into the water but suddenly he saw something black and white under the water. He looked carefully. It was a little penguin!

"Who are you?" asked Flippy. The penguin didn't answer.

"Go away!" said Flippy angrily and stamped his foot. The penguin under the water stamped his foot, too. Flippy didn't like it. He turned round and wanted to go away.

But then he had an idea. "I should talk quietly to him," he thought.

He slowly came up to the water and looked. The penguin was there.

"Hello! I'm glad to see you," said Flippy and smiled. The penguin under the water smiled happily, too.

UNIT 9, Lesson 1, ex. 3b

Hello everybody! In our programme we're starting a new series about animals and birds which have become national symbols of different countries. You'll learn about the bald eagle, which is the symbol of the USA. I'm sure you know that the kangaroo is the symbol of Australia but perhaps you don't know that the lion is the national animal of Britain and the tiger is the symbol of India. Today we're going to talk about the beaver, the national symbol of Canada. Beavers can be found in many areas of North America.

UNIT 9, Lesson 2, ex. 1b

Mike: Dear Mike,

How are you? I'm fine. It's very hot here. Last week we found a baby kangaroo. Come to visit us! We'll play with our new pet and have a good time!...

Liz: Mike, what are you reading?

Mike: A letter from my cousin Chris.

Liz: Your cousin? Where is he from?

Mike: From Australia.

Liz: Wow! What's he writing?

Mike: He's inviting me to Australia.

Liz: Australia? You lucky thing! You'll see koalas and kangaroos.

Elfin: Mike, can we go with you?

Mike: Of course you can.

Liz: Hooray!

Elfin: I like travelling! How are we going to travel?

UNIT 9, Lesson 2, ex. 2b

Sounds: 1. car; 2. ship; 3. bicycle; 4. train; 5. plane; 6. boat; 7. motorbike.

UNIT 9, Lesson 3, ex. 2a, 2b

Mike: So, we're going from Britain to Belarus by bus. We can see a lot of countries. Then we're going from Belarus to Russia by train. It's very fast. New Zealand is far away. We're going from Russia to New Zealand by plane, then from New Zealand to Australia by ship.

UNIT 9, Lesson 4, ex. 1

Elfin: So, how are we going to travel to Australia, Mike?

Mike: Let's go by train. I love trains! You can look through the window or ... read a book or ... do crosswords. Trains are fast!

Liz: Sorry, I don't like trains. What about going by plane? Planes are faster than trains. You can look at the clouds or ... watch a video. What do you think, Elfin?

Elfin: Well, why not go by ship? It's my favourite way of travelling. I love the sea. You can sometimes see a whale or a dolphin.

Moldy: Or a shark!

Rotty: Ha-ha-ha!

UNIT 9, Lesson 5, ex. 2c

Baron Munchausen: I jumped into the water. I saw a pirate's ship not far from me. It wasn't funny! But the whale saw the pirate's ship too, and ... it ate the pirates! I was happy, you know. Then two ducks flew to me and they took me to my ship. I was really lucky!

UNIT 9, Lesson 6, ex. 1b

Reporter: Good morning, Baron Munchausen!

Baron: Good morning!

Reporter: Can I ask you some questions about your trip to Africa?

Baron: Sure!

Reporter: When did you go there?

Baron: Thirty years ago.

Reporter: I see. How did you go there?

Baron: By hot-air balloon.

Reporter: Who did you go there with?

Baron: Oh, I went there with my best friend, my parrot.

Reporter: What did you see there?

Baron: I saw a very big monkey. It was bigger than an elephant!

Reporter: Bigger than an elephant?! What did you eat?

Baron: Tortoise soup. Yummy!

Reporter: Did you like your trip?

Baron: Yes, it was fantastic!

Reporter: Thank you very much.

Baron: You're welcome!
